

Communications Commission awarded ISO 9001:2015 certificate for effectiveness

As of the fourth quarter of 2020, there are 3.26 million subscribers using mobile internet

13 February is World Radio Day!

Kakha Bekauri: "We will protect the rights of the viewers to ensure that different opinions are not suppressed through obscenity, offensive language and hate speech"

Pridon Injia is unlawfully using the Parliament as a platform to pursue his personal business interests

Member of Parliament Pridon Injia attempted to hide his unlawful activities through expedited changes in the Registry

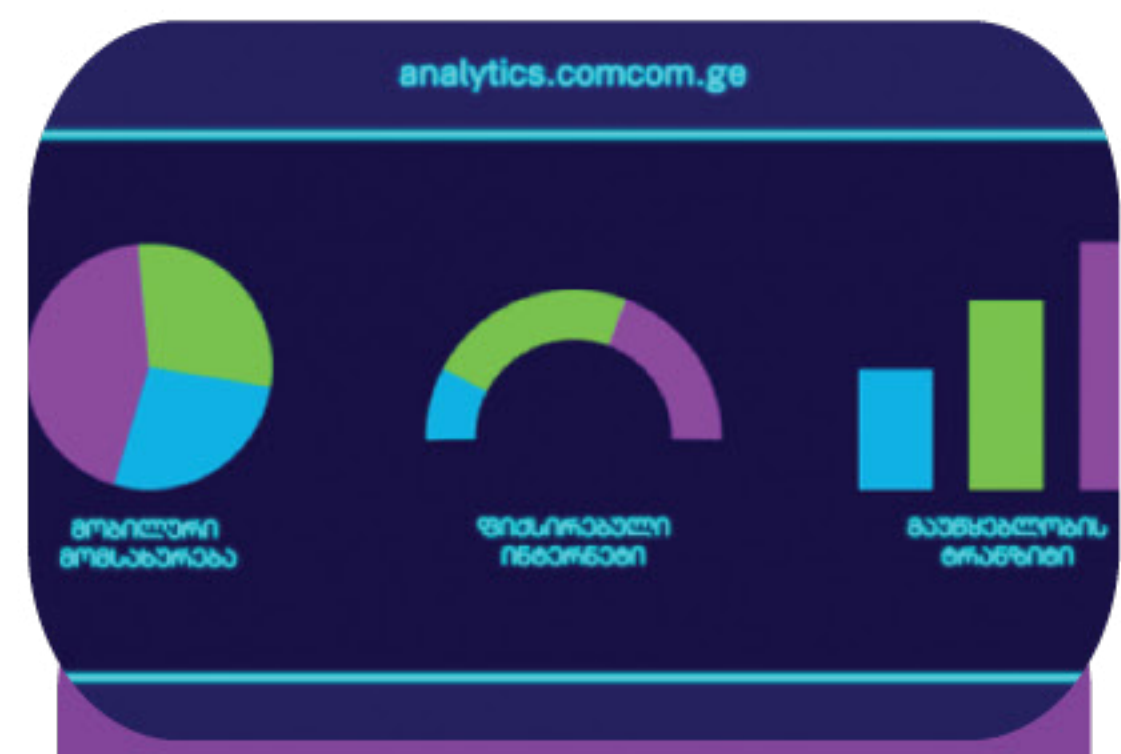

Communications Commission finds Mtavari Arkhi guilty of broadcasting obscenity, but relieves it of liability

Kakha Bekauri: "Repeated use of obscenity may limit the freedom of expression, including the freedom of obtaining information and freedom of choice"

GDS TV fined GEL 5000 for unlawfully broadcasting a film classified as unsuitable for minors

Up to 1500 reports disseminated in 5 months through ComCom Analytics

Communications Commission announces the winners of the competition "Truth or Fiction?"

